AMENDED INITIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT OF GOOGLE INC.

Judge: Hon. William Alsup
Date Comp. Filed: October 27, 2010

Trial Date: October 31, 2011

Defendant Google Inc. (“Google”) provides this Amended Initial Disclosure Statement pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Google makes these disclosures based on its current knowledge, without the benefit of complete discovery in this action, and without waiver of attorney-client privilege, work product, common interest privilege, or any other privilege. Google’s investigations are continuing and Google expressly reserves the right to amend or modify these disclosures in accordance with Rule 26 based on additional information obtained through formal discovery, continued investigation, or other means. Google further reserves the right to object on any applicable basis to the production of documents and things from the categories identified herein or the obtaining of testimony from the witnesses identified herein.

Subject to the foregoing, Google provides the following information and disclosures in accordance with subsections (i) through (iv) of Rule 26(a)(1)(A):

(i) In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i), Google states as follows:

Based on information currently available to Google after reasonable investigation, the following entities and individuals may have discoverable information that Google may use to support its claims or defenses in this action. Google provides the following list without any concession, agreement, admission, or waiver of any ultimate determination of relevance or admissibility of particular information for any purpose, and without waiver of attorney-client privilege or work-product immunity, or any other privilege or immunity. Google reserves the right to amend or supplement this list of persons based on facts that may be disclosed during discovery.

Google may amend or supplement this list of knowledgeable individuals based on its investigation and further discovery, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).

(ii). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii), Google states as follows:

Google identifies the following categories of documents, data compilations, and tangible things in its possession, custody or control that it may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment. By making this disclosure, Google does not represent that it is identifying every potentially relevant document or tangible thing upon which it may rely for purposes of this lawsuit. Continuing investigation and discovery may reveal additional relevant documents or tangible things, and Google reserves the right to supplement this disclosure accordingly. Google does not waive its right to object to the production of any particular document or tangible thing disclosed herein on the basis of any valid objections to its discoverability or admissibility.

1. Business records and other documents (which may include, but are not limited to, schematics, source code, marketing materials, advertising materials, engineering documents, and sales documents) related to Android. Those documents may be included in communications to, from, or within Google and may be located in electronic repositories, source code repositories, and/or individual files of personnel reasonably connected to the subject matter of this suit.

Specifically, the repositories included in the following table may include documents Google will rely on to support its claims or defenses:

CATEGORY	LOCATION
Google internal non-custodial document repositories.	These document repositories are accessible via Google's internal systems, and include, to the extent that they are applicable and relevant, Google Sites, Wikis, Google Docs, Google Groups and Internal Blogs.
Google custodial document repositories.	These document repositories are accessible for each custodian and include, to the extent that they are applicable and relevant, email repositories, user home directories, Google Docs, locally stored electronic documents and hardcopy repositories.
Google internal contracts repository	This document repository, to the extent that it is applicable and relevant, is accessible via Google's internal systems.

Public Android documents	These documents can be located at: http://source.android.com/ ; http://developer.android.com/ ; http://code.google.com/android/ ; http://sites.google.com/site/io/dalvik-vm-internals .

2. The patents-in-suit, their prosecution histories (including any reissue or reexamination application), and prior art cited during prosecution.

3. The Asserted Copyrights and documents relating to the Asserted Copyrights and the works that are the subject of the Asserted Copyrights, including prior works on which such works were based.

4. Any and all documents in the possession, custody or control of, or produced by, Plaintiff or relevant third parties subpoenaed in this action.

5. Any and all documents from prior or current litigations involving Sun, Oracle America, or Oracle Corporation as a party or otherwise involving issues related to Sun, Oracle America, or Oracle Corporation, including, but not limited to: Sun v. Microsoft, Case No. C 97-20884 RMW (N.D. Cal.), Sun v. Microsoft, Case No. C 02-01150 RMW (N.D. Cal.); In Re Microsoft Corp. Antitrust Litigation, C.A. No. JFM-02-2739 (D. Md.), Hewlett-Packard v. Mark v. Hurd, Case No. 110CV181699 (Cal. Super.). Documents related to these litigations are in the public record, or believed to be in the possession of the parties to the litigations.

6. Any and all documents from prior or current litigations in which Peter Choy, Sun Microsystems Deputy General Counsel, or Howard Freedman, Sun Microsystems Associate General Counsel, authored or served as counsel-of-record for an amicus curiae brief, including but not limited to: Sony Computer Entm't v. Connectix Corp., No. 99-15852 (9th Cir.); Lotus Dev. Corp. v. Borland Int'l, Inc., No. 94-2003 (U.S.); Bateman v. Mnemonics, Inc., No. 93-3234 (11th Cir.); Computer Associates Intern., Inc. v. Altai, Inc., No. 91-7893 (2d Cir.); or DVD Copy Control Ass'n Inc. v. Bunner, No. H021153 (Cal. Ct. App. 6th Dist.). Documents related to these litigations are in the public record, or believed to be in Oracle's possession.

7. Prior art discovered as part of Google's defense in this litigation, which has been produced by Google.

(iii). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii), Google states as follows:

Google does not seek an award of damages in this matter and therefore believes that subsection (iii) of Rule 26(a)(1)(A) is not applicable to Google.

Google notes, however, that Google believes that this is an exceptional case and that it

1 will be entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285 and/or 17
2 U.S.C. § 505. The amounts of such fees and costs cannot be computed or calculated until such
3 time as Google's entitlement to such an award has been determined.

5 (iv). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iv), Google states as follows:

7 At this time, Google has not identified any applicable indemnity and insurance
8 agreements under which an entity may be liable to satisfy part or all of any judgment that might
9 be entered in this action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy any judgment
10 that might be entered in this action.
